From Tuesday December 3. to Saturday December 7. 1717.

Leghorne, November 26.

ON the 22d Inſtant two Spaniſh Gallies came into this Port from Sardinia, having on board the Marqueſs of San Felippe, and on the 24th they ſailed with him for Genoa, where he is to reſide as formerly in the Quality of Envoy of the King of Spain. The Marqueſs de Rubi and the Archbiſhop of Cagliari, paſſed by this Place incognito on the 20th for Milan. Mr. Davenant, the Britiſh Miniſter, is come hither from Florence, and next Week will imbark for Genoa.

Madrid, Nov. 22. Admiral Caſtanneta, who was reported to be ſent lately from hence to haſten the finiſhing of ſeveral Men of War which are building in the Ports of Catalonia and Biſcay, is now ſaid to be gone to Holland, to view ſome Men of War which are building there on the King's Account, and which are to be brought to Cadiz. Don Franciſco Zapata, Alcalde of the Court, who has been employed ſome Time in Valencia to diſpoſe of the forfeited Eſtates in that Kingdom, is recalled from thence, and ordered to repair to a ſmall Town 10 Leagues diſtant from this City, there to reſide till further Order; the Reaſon of his Diſgrace is not made publick. The Corregidor of this City is ordered to give Direction for the providing of Quarters for the Horſe which are ſent for hither. Sig. Mocenigo, the Venetian Miniſter, who has reſided here for ſome Time, ſet out laſt Week for the Court of Portugal: 'Tis ſaid he is commiſſioned by that Republick, to give his Portugueſe Majeſty Satisfaction, upon the Differences which happened this laſt Summer between the Commadore of the Portugueſe Squadron and the Commander in chief of the Venetian Fleet. At the repeated Inſtances of the Marqueſs de Valdecannas, late Captain-General of Valencia, the the King has nominated a Junta, choſen out of the ſeveral Councils of Caſtile, of War, and of the Indies, to examine into his whole Conduct while he had that Employment. Since the Arrival of Sig. Patino from Barcelona, Don Rodrigo Cavallero has been appointed Intendant of Catalonia, in the Room of Don Joſeph Pedrajas. By the laſt Letters from the Havana, we have received a Confirmation of the Death of the Duke de Linares, Viceroy of Mexico.

Cadiz, Nov. 8. Admiral Cornwall is now in the Bay of Gibraltar. On the 20th paſt the Speedwell, a Britiſh Man of War, brought hither the Emperour of Morocco's Letters of Safe-Conduct for ſuch Perſon as ſhould repair to Mequinez with his Britannick Majeſty's Commiſſion to treat of Peace; which having been diſpatched to the ſaid Admiral by an Expreſs, Captain Norbury is preparing to go to Mequinez. So that there is a Proſpect of that Affair's being ſoon brought to a good Concluſion.

Lisbon, Nov. 30. On the 15th of this Month arrived here the Deal-Caſtle, a Britiſh Man of War, Captain Willis Commander, from Newfoundland; as did alſo on the 20th the Bridgewater, a Britiſh Man of War, Captain Fletcher Commander, from Cadiz. Sig. Mocenigo, a Procurator of St. Mark, came hither on the 27th Inſtant from Madrid, and 'tis ſuppoſed is to paſs the Winter at this Court; but has not yet taken on him a publick Character. On the 28th the King and Court returned from Pedroços, to reſide here. The Court of Spain has prohibited the Importation of Sugars, Sweet-Meats, and Cacao, from this Kingdom, on Pretence of their Wines and Brandies being prohibited here.

Berne, Dec. 1. The laſt Letters from Turin, ſay all was quiet there, and that there was no Appearance of any Preparations made to attack, or of Apprehenſions of being attacked: That there are but 13 Battallions in Piemont and Savoy, 3 of which are in Valentia, 5 in Alexandria (which Place alone would require above 10 for it Defence) and 2 in the Town and Citadel of Turin: That the other 3 are diſtributed in Coni, Demont, Suſa, Exilles, and Feneſtrelles: And that all theſe Batallions have continued where they are for two Years paſt, without being changed. The King of Sicily has returned an Anſwer to the Letter of the Proteſtant Cantons in favour of the State of Geneva upon the Subject of the Tithes of Fonſenex; by which his Sicilian Majeſty denies the Right pretended to by the City of Geneva, and juſtifies the Claim of the Curate of Fonſenex, on which the late Decree of the Senate of Chambery is grounded. The Deputies of this Canton ſet out Yeſterday for Arau, to meet thoſe of Zurich, in order to prepare Matters for the Conference which is to be held at Baden the 5th of January next with thoſe of the Abbot of St. Gall.
